

Creative Reuse, Upcycling and Repurposing

SCRAP

Kelley Carmichael Casey

UPCYCLING:

The process of converting waste materials into new materials or products of better quality or a higher environmental value.

SERAP
Create More, Consume Less

REPURPOSING:

To use or convert for use in another format or product

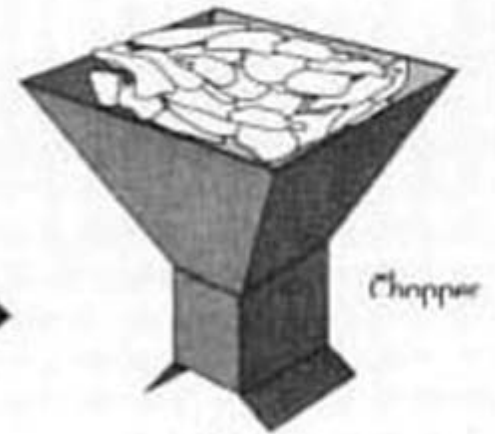

Plastic bottles

Bale of plastic bottles

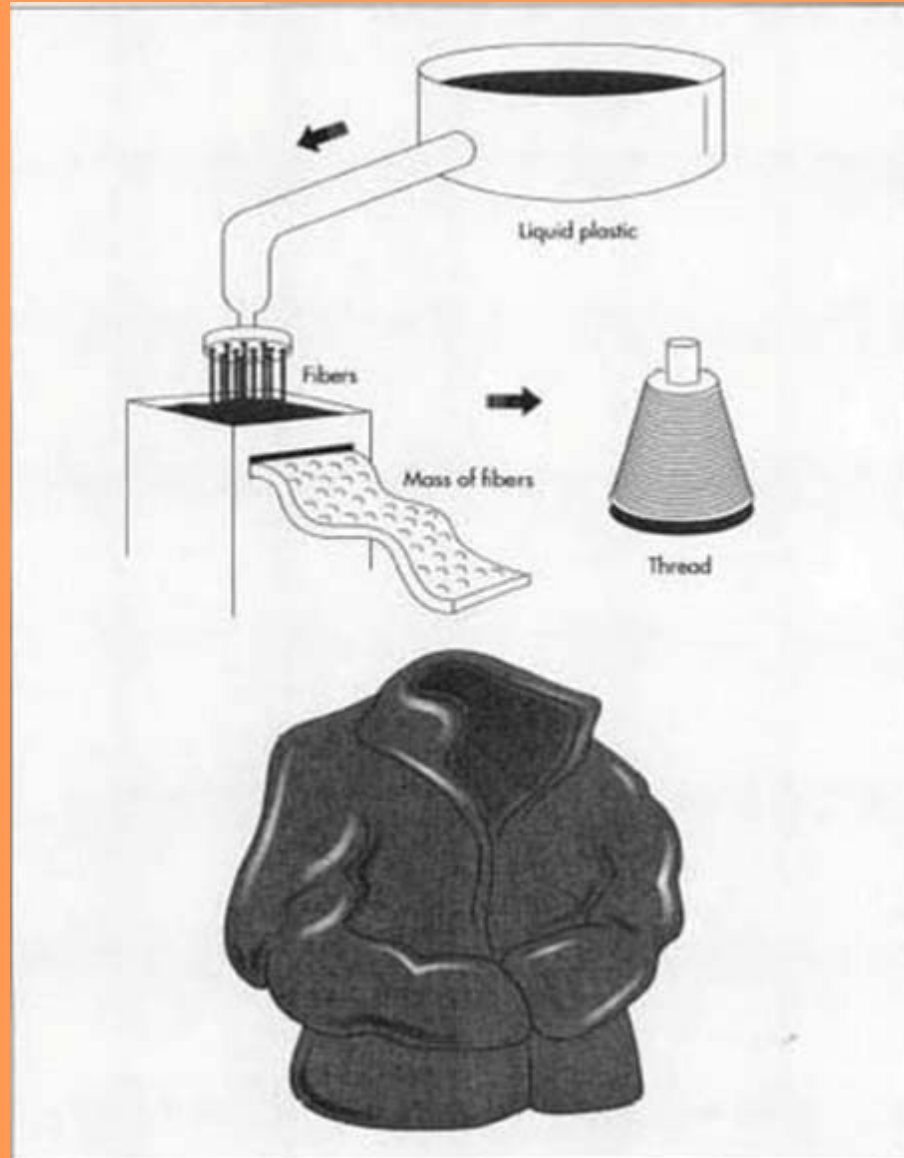

Sorted/cleaned

Tiny plastic chips called flake

Create More, Consume Less

Create More, Consume Less

CREATIVE REUSE:

The process of taking used or recycled materials and turning them into a creative pieces of art, home decoration, or other useful items.

Create More, Consume Less

SERAP
Create More, Consume Less

SERAP
Create More, Consume Less

OUR MISSION:

To inspire creative reuse and environmentally sustainable behavior by providing educational programs and affordable materials to the community.

Creative Reuse Center

- Create a nonprofit organization structure
- Receive donations of clean, reusable materials
- Make available to the community at a low cost
- Create space for creative exploration with reused materials

Programming

- Education/Inreach
- Community Engagement
- Volunteers
- Business Engagement
- Gallery

Education

Inside

- Crafting Workshops
- No School Days
- Art classes
- SCRAPpy Birthday Parties
- Tours & Field Trips

Education

Outside

- School Pilot Programs
- Community Events

Better Living Expo 2008

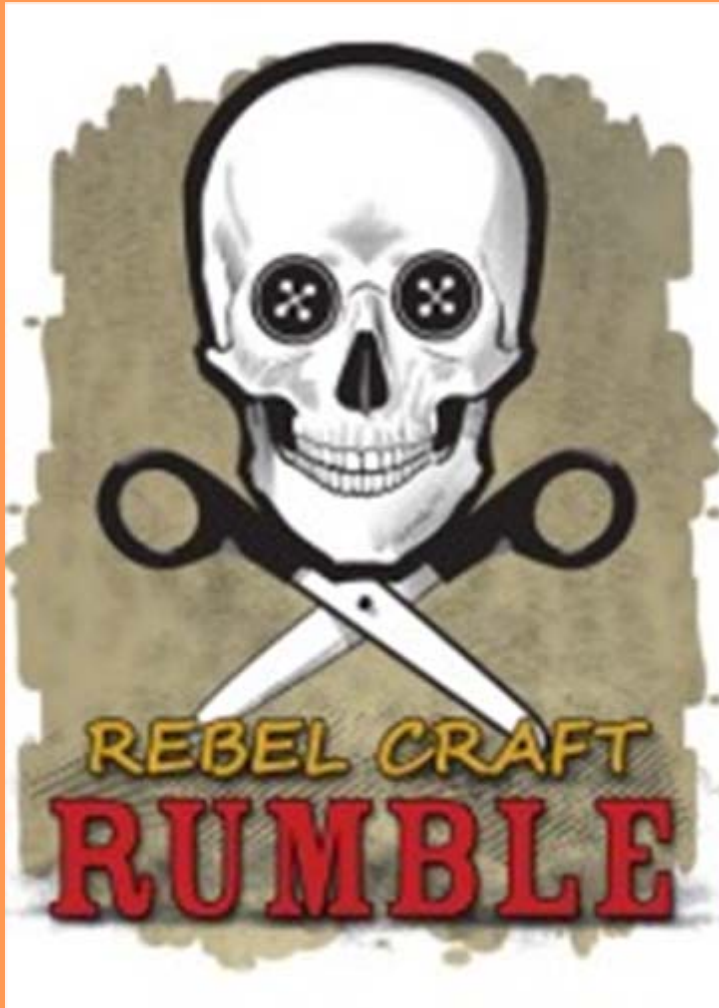

Cracked Pots Event

Collaboration & Support

Create More, Consume Less

SERAP
Create More, Consume Less

Create More, Consume Less

THANK YOU!

Kelley Carmichael Casey

kelly@scrapaction.org

www.scrapaction.org

Create More, Consume Less